INFORMATION / DISCUSSION ITEMS

Doug welcomed all attendees to the meeting, and then provided a brief overview of what the meeting was going to be about. He then turned the meeting over to Joe Lombardo to begin the LEPC Prevention and Protection Seminar.

• LEPC Prevention and Protection Seminar

Joe provided an overview of what attendee's would be participating in and had them introduce themselves.

Joe gave an update on gaps brought to light from the Complex Coordinated Attack T&E that FEMA provided to local and regional partners in July, 2016. A key element being the need to increase enhancement and awareness with all partners in the public/private sector in the community as far as information and intel collection/sharing.

Sara Draper, area FBI agent, and Brian McLaughlin, NCTC, both gave presentations and provided information and took questions in regard to the evolution in the types of terrorist attacks/threats being utilized by terrorists worldwide.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:45 p.m.
